

Dementia Information Day

LEARNING TO LIVE WITH DEMENTIA

Tuesday 16th November 2010
The Eden Project, Gallery Room

Seminar Morning 10am -1pm

Including, an 'expert by experience', specialist GP, Voluntary and Community Organisations and those involved in delivering the dementia programme in Cornwall.

BOOKING ESSENTIAL - LIMITED PLACES AVAILABLE - FIRST COME FIRST SERVED

Information Fair 1.45pm - 3.45pm

Meet, find out about and talk to organisations from across Cornwall who provide services for people with dementia. PALS will be attending to talk to for free individual & confidential advice.

STALLS AVAILABLE - PLEASE CONTACT US TO BOOK
small fee may be applicable for stalls

Places must be booked by 29th Oct. All bookings will be confirmed by 2nd Nov.

LINK in Cornwall gives you the opportunity to work with the people who plan and run health and social care services to make positive changes. It is independent and volunteer led.

The Eden Project has kindly agreed free entry to confirmed attendees.

A day organised and hosted by:

www.linkincornwall.org.uk

Telephone: 01872 243533

Email: linkincornwall@cornwallrcc.org.uk

Refreshments for the day funded by:

Cornwall and Isles of Scilly